

Quality Policy

Denroy will continue to reinforce its position as the provider of choice for injection moulded components and assemblies to various industry and consumer sectors and further strengthen its reputation and business in its export markets. The company will position itself strategically with personnel, expertise, equipment, certification, and approvals to meet the demands of existing customers and be able to respond to opportunistic and new business. The company will rely on its strength of building personal relationships to develop business with customers, focused on a mutual understanding of requirements to meet the demanding needs of our industry. The company will relentlessly pursue continuous improvement through training, development and technological innovation to maintain a highly competitive position.

Denroy aims to provide safe products that meet customer and regulatory requirements using appropriate processes, procedures and controls. and is committed to maintaining its effectiveness in accordance with ISO 9001:2015/EN 9100:2018 Quality management systems — Requirements.

Chief Operating Officer Approval:

Name: Chris Boomer

Signature

Date 01/06/2023